

MUSIC ALIVE!

STUDENT QUIZ ANSWERS

Vol.39, No.5

WHEN BIG BANDS WERE BIG

1. 1913
2. The Original Dixieland Jazz Band
3. Ragtime is characterized by rigid rhythms, whereas swing has a more laid back rhythm
4. Saxophones, trumpets, trombones, guitar, double bass and rhythm section
5. Benny Goodman
6. 1935
7. The Lindy Hop was named after pilot Charles Lindbergh, who was nicknamed Lucky Lindy
8. The Great Depression
9. Live broadcasting, improved microphones, the jukebox and the household radio
10. The 1950s

BEETHOVEN AT 250

1. 1770
2. 13
3. Hearing loss
4. He believed it helped to spark his creative genius
5. Lead poisoning, though it remains unknown if this was from extreme exposure or a sensitivity to normal levels
6. 32
7. Classical is characterized by elegance and balance, whereas Romantic is characterized by freedom of form and design in dynamics, orchestration and harmonies
8. Violin and cello parts within sonatas were simply copies of the piano part until Beethoven wrote them their own lines
9. Vienna
10. 70 years (1830-1900)

TONES AND I

1. Seven
2. To become a busker
3. Keyboard, synthesizer, drum pad, loop pedal, harmonizer
4. Rude fans who would yell at her
5. "Jonny Run Away"
6. Because she got to talk to her fans and have meaningful interactions with them
7. 2017
8. 2019
9. She was more dedicated, had a unique set of instruments and gained more fans
10. Not writing specifically for radio, but writing about things that make her happy

This month's quizzes are also available at musicalive.com/the-quiz-zone-39-5