

MUSIC ALIVE!

STUDENT QUIZ ANSWERS

Vol.39, No.7

POP HARMONIES

1. Barbershop singing style is four-part vocal harmony, and it was popular between the 1800s and the 1920s
2. The Boswell Sisters
3. The Andrews Sisters were a trio of singers very much like the Boswells, and Bette Midler, Christina Aguilera and Pentatonix all cite them as an inspiration
4. He put on a show by dancing, singing, jumping and praying during performances
5. "Rag Mop," "Undecided," "You, You, You"
6. The Everly Brothers
7. Franki Valli and The Four Seasons
8. Electric, acoustic, country, rock, pop
9. "Bohemian Rhapsody"
10. 1980s and 90s

NEW AGE MUSIC

1. 1960s
2. If it has nature sounds, soothing ambience, etc.
3. People were focused on spiritual health and practicing things like yoga and meditation
4. Folk, classical, world music, jazz
5. To connect to your "higher self," do yoga, find inner peace, enhance harmony
6. People began to shift their focus to mental, physical and spiritual health
7. Extended laughter followed by deep meditation; first you find happiness and bliss by laughing and then find peace and self-reflection through meditation
8. Young people are more likely to enjoy experimental, unconventional music
9. Someone who practices yoga
10. How it makes you feel

ONEREPUBLIC

1. Ryan Tedder, Zach Filkinis, Eddie Fisher, Brent Kutzle, Drew Brown
2. This Beautiful Mess
3. Fear of legal trouble from similarly named bands
4. Dreaming Out Loud
5. "Counting Stars"
6. Tedder was dealing with anxiety over long hours
7. "Better Days"
8. OneRepublic fans in quarantine as well as first responders in action during the coronavirus spread
9. "Better Days" is about staying hopeful and positive through challenging times
10. "Apologize," "Feel Again," "Secrets," "All the Right Moves," "Good Life," "No Vacancy," "Rich Love," "Didn't I"